Third Party Recruiters

Thank you for your interest in Wilson & Company.

At Wilson & Company, we appreciate and respect the importance of building strategic relationships with agencies knowledgeable in our industry. Our corporate policy requires all third party recruiters to work with our internal recruitment team. Please do not contact or send candidate resumes to employees or hiring managers.

Once we have selected approved recruitment agencies, we will set up an account for them in our Applicant Tracking System so they will be able to submit resumes to their contracted openings. Contracts and agreements signed by employees outside of the recruitment staff are not considered valid.

If you wish to submit your credentials to our recruitment staff for consideration, please email info@wilsonco.com with the subject line "Recruiter Opportunities."

PLEASE NOTE: Currently, the use of third party recruiters is suspended.
